ON THE DIAMOND.

The ball game on Saturday was fairly attended and resulted in a victory for the Hawaii by a score of ten to seven, all innings played. The Hawaii team was materially strengthened all around, but owing to the freshness of some players the errors were numerous, numbering no less than twelve, and four of them credited to John Friedenberg. The Crescent team fielded well, but Angus pitched weakly. The Hawaii, as a whole, did not do any exceptionally fine playing, but they got there just the same. Palmer Woods was in fine trim and pitched a swift steady ball. The Crescents will have to practice pretty lively this week, as they will meet the Kanehamehas on Saturday.

Following is the official score:

REPLY TO MR. CROWLEY.

EDITOR BULLETIN:—

The BULLETIN of May 19 and 21 have been sent me and I now beg of your courtesy to allow me in your paper to send Mr. Crowley my sympathy. The world in general is not liberal, it is narrow and close of purse, and maybe his landlord charges Mr. Crowley the usual rent. The better time will be coming when men as liberal as Mr. Crowley rule the world and then maybe there will be no rent to pay. Mr. C. says that Mr. Knudsen, whom he pleasantly calls, "lord of Mana," receives the labor of every kanaka on the land for thirty days in the year. This is not correct, it should be thirty-six days in a year, but, Mr. Editor, not "free." For three days, work each month the native men at Mana have every kalo patch of the land, all the garden land they wish to plant, the sole and unrestricted use and control of the fishery, which is said to be one of the best in the Hawaiian Kingdom. They furthermore have the house lot, they may choose to occupy, and all the wood wanted for use, for houses and fences. If sick or old they give no work or pay, besides any one of them can pay in cash if he chooses, at the rate of one dollar per month. Thus this charge of Mr. Crowley amounts to that Mr. Knudsen receives one dollar a month from each native man, that lives on the land with wife and children, and they seem all to do well, as not a few keep carriage and several horses, for which latter though they pay pastureage of five dollars yearly for each animal. If Mr. Knudsen can be of any further service to Mr. Crowley, he wishes to say that it will be a pleasure to him so to do, and if Mr. Crowley will kindly give his statesmanlike view of how best to treat tenants, it shall be highly appreciated.

I am, Mr. Editor, your obliged servant,
VALDEMAR KNUDSEN.
Waiawa, Kauai, May 27, 1892.

A traveling man who chanced to be in the store of E. V. Wood, at McKees Rocks, Pa., says while he was waiting to see Mr. Wood, a little girl came in with an empty bottle labeled Chamberlain's Pain Balm and said: "Mamma wants another bottle of that medicine; she says it is the best medicine for rheumatism she ever used." 50 cent bottles for sale by all dealers. Benson, Smith & Co., Agents.

AN OPPORTUNITY!

At the request of a number of our patrons, we have concluded to offer the services of our artist, Mr. W. Y. Itow, as a practical instructor in Oil Painting and Water Coloring, free of charge.

Mr. Itow has been in our employ for the past two years and we feel confident that, by practical demonstration, he can teach his pupil just what he wants to know in the matter of handling colors, etc., without the tiresome course usually adopted by instructors.
